

Doing It In Style

When the Royal Family visited his domain on the Zambesi River the Barotse Paramount Chief Imwiko was determined to make an impressive show for them. So he arrived in his State barge to read an address of welcome. Here you see him walking in procession after landing, preceded by his ceremonial chair and followed by his musicians.