Khayber Pass in the Frontier Province and Kahouta in the Rawalpindi district were selected for the first tour of the new Viceroy. Lord Mountbatten accompanied by Lady Mountbatten and party arrived in Peshawar on Monday the 28th April. From Peshawar they proceeded to Landi Kotal where after inspection of the Khayber Rifles, Afridi Maliks (elders) were presented before His Excellency the Viceroy. After this the Viceroy addressed a tribal jirga where about 300 maliks representing the clans of Afridis, Shinwaris, Zakakel. Malikdin, Sipah, Salmani and Kullaghori had assembled to welcome the Viceroy. Khan Abdul Latif Khan, spokesman of the Jirga said We are very glad to welcome Your Excellency It is an honour to us that two Viceroys have come to see with in such a short period. These visits reassure us and they show that high authorities are interested in the future of tribes. We were surprised that no mention was made in the Prime Ministers statemen in London two months ago about the tribes because relations between free tribes and India are vital to both:

In his reply His Excellency the Viceroy said "I am delighted to visit Khayber again after 25 years and to make close acquimintance with the tribes. That I recognise its importance is shown by the fact that the first visit I have paid since my arrival in India has been to the Frontier Your future is very much in my hands. Do not forget that the relationship between yourself and India, based in your treaties with the British Government, will be continued with the future India on the basis of fresh agreement which you will in due course be called to negotiate with the appropriate authorities. You will do well to remember that there are two sides to every bargain, and both sides stand to gain from a satisfactory agreement."

After the address by the Viceroy, Malik Abdul Latif Khan presented His Excellency with a gift of country made rifle, a pair of chappals and a leather bag with a shoulder strap.

On return from Khayber pass, there was demonstration by Muslim Leaguers as the car of the Viceroy passed through main road. The leaguers shouted slogans against the interim government, against the prient ministry in frontier and in favour of Pakistan. There were demonstrations in the streets of Peshawar but these were very quiet.
