First pictures of the Russian wives whom Stalin will not allow to leave Moscow to join their British husbands.

Negotiations are still going on and the girls are still hoping. Nada Boulton (left) and Nidejda Whitehead are both-married-to-London-men---All-the-marriages-took-place-- both married to London men. Now married eighteen months is Klara Hall, very eager to show 5-month-old Nicholi to her husband in England.

(next) On behalf of these women and ~~them~~ the men they married with Ernest Bevin himself pleaded ~~in~~ Moscow to relax the rigid Soviet regulations; but relaxing doesn't come easy to Moscow.
