

VICEROY BACK TO REPORT

In a York aircraft Viscount Mountbatten landed at Northolt.

The Viceroy, with Lady Mountbatten, was met by the Secretary for India, Lord Listowel and other officials. His daughter, Lady Brabourne and her husband were also there. Declining to make statements for the Press the Viceroy

The Viceroy, with Lady Mountbatten, was met by the Secy. for India, Lord Listowel, and other officials. He regretted that he could make no statement for the Press. Also at the airport were his recently married daughter, Lady Brabourne and her husband. The Viceroy comes to London to make an urgent report to the Cabinet on the serious position in India and present his plans for meeting the powerful demands for partitioning that country. For though Britain strongly wishes to leave India a united nation the Government cannot impose unity if the people wish otherwise.
