

CHARITY GOLF TURNS COURSE INTO WHO'S WHO

Washington ran a golf tourney, raising funds for ^{the} juvenile delinquency campaign. Celebrities by the score. Admiral Nimitz ~~Nimitz~~ autographed Eisenhower's golf jacket and those old rivals Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney sought new fame. In supreme command of the ball Ike hit ^{a beauty} ~~one~~ down the middle and the show was on. Now ^{Jusk} Gene Tunney.... Dempsey.... Bobby Jones still knows how ~~to~~ do it.... Former champion Gene Sarazen, and another old timer, the great Walter Hagen.

Bing Crosby. Good enough player to be at home in any company.

Happy Chandley, famous in the baseball world, has a ~~squeer~~ style but gets results.

Ike had a good try from the edge of the green but the luck wasn't his. Bobby Jones showed the way to the hole but he was two strokes behind Gene Sarazen, so Gene won and Attorney General Clark gave him the trophy. For the Old Timer, quite like old times.

Steckman
Joyce
#77
Non

May 20, 1947

1. TITLE: Golf CELEBRITIES SWING IT!

2. At Washington's Columbia Country Club the cameras hit a "jackpot" of famous Americans! They're here to help publicize Attorney-General Tom Clark's campaign against juvenile delinquency. Here's Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney. Admiral Nimitz signs up too - on Gen. Eisenhower's jacket. Then begins two days of an astonishing variety of golfing form. The Attorney General starts it off.

11. Then General Ike.

13. Navy Secretary Forrestal

14. General Omar Bradley

16. Tunney belts one.

17. Dempsey - still the Manassa Mauler!

18. Ah! Bobby Jones! Golf at last!

20. Gene Sarazen too.

22. And Look! Walter Hagen! The Hague himself!

24. Mrs. Zaharias - the former Babe Didriksen.

26. Senator Taft.

28. A friend of Bob Hope's.

29. Baseball Commissioner Happy Chandler slashes one through the infield.

31. The huge gallery is having a field day.

33. Mr. Chandler uses that same aggressive stance for his putts - and sinks 'em too!

35. The gentleman from Hollywood is in trouble - while the gentleman from Ohio has no trouble with this hole.

37. Gen. Eisenhower tries a strategic approach. maneuver!

39. Mrs. Zaharias sinks her final putt to beat all the women - and most of the men!

40. Bob Jones drops his last one but finishes two strokes behind Gene Sarazen for the overall championship.

42. It's another trophy for Gene. But he hopes American kids get the real prize of this tournament.