

LIVIN TENNIS

Wimbledon had championship weather for the opening of the meeting. Sunshine encouraged the spectators into an Ascot mood. Seeded player Bob Falkenberg was one of the hundred and thirty in the Men's Singles. Photographs of the better known players had a brisk sale before play began. Nearly three hundred and fifty of the world's tennis stars will be on view on the six courts of the

~~All-England Club in the early stages. Favourite in the~~

Singles favourite,
~~Men's Singles,~~

American star Kramer opposed W. J. Moss on

Court Two. [The American champion won in straight sets, ^{so} losing only one game, ~~in a very good display~~

4
6
Wimbledon 7 year gathers
Wimbledon

T. Brown, U.S.A., was taken to five sets by the South African star E. W. Sturgess.

The title holder, the tall Petra of France, ^{at the far end,} had an easy passage into the second round, beating the little-known D. W. Butler in straight sets.

(6 out)

(GV) Leading five-nil in the third set Petra was ^{now} within one of match point.

Match point, ^{now} Butler's service but victory for Petra.