

BEVIN AND MOLOTOV IN PARIS

At the Quai D'Orsay, French Foreign Office, the Foreign Ministers held a conference which may really get somewhere. Premier Ramadier discussed with Ernest Bevin and M. Bidault the Anglo-French reaction to General Marshall's plan for helping Europe. America makes it clear that U.S. aid depends on the co-operation of European countries in bringing about an economic revival. Invite Molotov, suggested Ernest Bevin, and the Soviet Foreign Secretary this time not only didn't say No; he actually said Yes, and as we go to Press is in Paris. This time may agreement be reached
