

FLASH: U%~~S~~ VETERANS AT WHITE HOUSE GARDEN PARTY

On the White House lawn President Truman gave a garden party for seven-hundred disabled soldiers. He and the First Lady shook hands with all the guests, thanking them for their service to America.

(3 out)

Present also ^e ~~was~~ General Marshall, ^{the} ~~new~~ Secretary of State, and the man who succeeded him as Chief of Staff, General Eisenhower, ^{and a soldier} ~~also the~~ who, rumour says, will follow Ike in that post, General Omar Bradley. A Democratic thank-you to the men who sacrificed so much.

Steckman
Abbott
Non #88

June 27, 1947

1. TITLE: PEOPLE IN THE EYES OF THE WORLD!

SUBTITLE: EISENHOWER TO HEAD COLUMBIA!

Columbia University announces a new President to succeed 84-year-old Nicholas Murray Butler. He's General Eisenhower shown here receiving a recent honorary degree from Columbia. General "Ike" will take over next year, one of the few Generals ever to head a University.

6. Meanwhile, in Washington, the General receives new military honors. With Admirals Leahy and Nimitz and War Secretary Patterson looking on, Navy Secretary Forrestal presents the Distinguished Service Medal on behalf of President Truman.

10. General "Ike" - soldier, Educator!

SUBTITLE: TRUMAN HOST TO VETERANS

2. On the White House lawn, the Trumans are hosts at a Garden Party. Guests are 685 disabled veterans. These parties were begun after World War I by Woodrow Wilson. Today, another generation of veterans are thanked for their personal sacrifices by the President.

12. The high brass pay their respects too. Secretary of State Marshall, the war-time Chief of Staff. His successor, General Eisenhower. And, when he leaves military life, the man rumored to replace him, General Omar Bradley. A traditional party for our veterans.

SUBTITLE: FORD-FIRESTONE WEDDING UNITES NOTED FAMILIES

2. In Akron, two famous names of the automotive world are joined in marriage. Attended by the groom's brother, Henry Ford the Second; and the bride's sister Elizabeth -Martha Parke Firestone becomes the bride of William Clay Ford.

7. No horse-and-buggy bridal-carriage for this pair.

8. In her grandmother's garden, the bride submits to minor repairs before receiving her wedding guests.

10. This romance culminates three generations of close friendship. The couple's grandfathers, the late Henry Ford and Harvey Firestone, not only were fellow pioneers of the automobile. They were warm personal friends, through out their lives.

14. After the wedding-trip, the 22-year-old groom will resume his studies at Yale - interrupted by three years of service in the Naval Air Forces. To young Mr. & Mrs. Ford - congratulations - long life - and happiness!