

VEGETABLE RAMP ANGERS WOMAN M.P.

The long foreseen near famine in potatoes has come about, result of the record frost and floods of last winter. Potato shortage has forced up the price of other vegetables, and to buy potatoes at all housewives are often compelled to pay more than they can afford for things they don't really want. Lack of other food has forced Britain to eat two-and-a-half times more potatoes than before the war. ^{consequently} Potato shortage is/all the more serious.

~~the~~ Suspecting a ramp in the big markets, that friend of housewives, Mrs. Leah Manning, M.P., investigated for herself.

Many greengrocers ~~hear out Mrs. Manning's contentions,~~ ^{to some to support Mrs. M.} luxury fruits are ~~a poor substitute for that stuff,~~ ^u the potato. Hear a typical ^{x-series} man-in-the-trade.
