The royal press party, with their Majesty's were given pride of place where anything happened, added to this one had to go to the boats or ships allocated. In the main the weather was not good during the actual time of the visit.

I did some stuff of general views of the fleet as the sun was setting possibly useful for library.

The grand finale shot from the flying deck of the Air craft carrier Illustrious, should have been covered by Gaumont rota sound as they were stationed on the above craft.

Reel One. Incidents on & around H.M.S. Anson.

Reel Two. ditto.

Reel Three. Incidents on H.M.S. Superb and the King etc speaking to Indian ratings who are there under instruction etc.

Reel Four. C.U. of the officer that received the King on H.M.S. Anson, Rear Admir, Harold Hickling, C.B.E., D.S.O. & various shots of the Fleet.

Reel Five. Various shots of the fleet etc.

Reel Six. The finale from the Air craft carrier Illustrious.

Attached please find Press matter and news cutting etc.
