DE GAULLE

Creaghey

Attempting a political comeback General de Gaulle was received with wild enthusiasm, at the climax of his tour of Brittany. At Rennes the General attended a large open-air service before delivering his address. He is attempting to rally to his movement all Frenchmen who are alarmed by the present unstable government, and who oppose the Communists.

(GV crowd) The General said that the French frontier is only three hundred miles away from the Communist bloc ~~of~~ dominated ~~four hundred miles from~~ by Moscow. He appealed to his countrymen to stave off the threat of slavery to a totalitarian regime.
