1. TITLE: "HAPPY BIRTHDAY, YOU BIG APE!"
2. Birthday for Philadelphia's Bamboo! He's twenty one today - the oldest gorilla in captivity. So, they throw him a party - and he throws it back!
10. Captive gorillas seldom live more than five years. But Bamboo lives on out of pure cussedness. Animal psychiatrists call him anti-social! And anti-camera!!
14. Bamboo weighs 435 - stands 6 ft. - and has an 8 foot reach. And, (like we said), he's anti-social!
16. Having properly insulted all his guests, the birthday boy gets on with the feast, finishing off quite daintily with a bit of fruit.
22. Ah, Bamboo - you're the Ape-le of our eye!
