

Parliament adjourns.

Scene 1

Parliament adjourns until ~~October~~, in the almost certain knowledge that its members face recall, for well within this time will come the final showdown of the phoney peace ..when the dollar loan runs out. M P's return to their constituencies to talk things over with electors and we inquired of them what messages they carried. ~~Member for~~ ~~Member for~~ Member for a quarter century, David Grenfell says.....

Others will tell John Citizen just how he spent his borrowed money. He spent an eighth of it in keeping Germany. Another eighth went up in smoke. Only the same amount was spent on ~~re-equip~~ new machines to re-equip his job. A quarter went on raw materials used in his work, another quarter on the food to give him strength to do it. With the loan gone we face a shocking drop in living standards. On this the Liberal Party leader says,.....
