

T U C MEET

The 79th Trades Union Congress opened at Southport confronted by the Economic Crisis and the Yorkshire Coal strike. The delegates of organised labour were joined by former T.U.C. General Secretary, Lord Citrine as they filed into the Floral Hall. As well as national matters, inter-union affairs had place on the agenda, such as the ~~mine-union~~ ^{pit-} mine-union's dispute with clerks, ^{who} ~~Hear~~

~~Will Lister~~ threaten a ~~strike~~ ^{pit-} ~~and~~) you

~~held a~~ ^{held a} ~~leave the present union.~~ ^{leave the present union.} ~~Hear will~~ ^{Hear will}
~~hear a~~ ^{hear a} ~~National Pres,~~ ^{National Pres,} ~~Wall~~ ^{Wall} ~~could~~ ^{could} ~~be~~ ^{be} ~~the~~ ^{the}

~~Is this an attempt~~ ^{Is this an attempt} ~~to gate-crash the TUC?~~ ^{to gate-crash the TUC?} Here, what's

~~your game?~~ ^{your game?}