

Dachau forgot its association with the concentration camp and revived the bull race, always held there before the war. Being German the animals don't show the spirit of the democratic steers out West. ~~They don't seem to mind~~ ~~having a go.~~ However, round the bend, one of them had had enough; <sup>he</sup> decided he was no ~~Sayajirao~~ Sayajirao and left the race to the others.... The winner, perhaps they'll train him for the Grand National.
