Barrel Organ Examination. 119/2

It is pretty hard to become an organ-grinder in Berlin. The future barrel-musician must comply with many regulations. He has to give a test performance at the Police Station with his barrel-organ to get the license. For the barrel-organ he pays 20 Marks rent. The organ-grinder and the organ are given their examination.

(original sound).

And now he goes to work, one of Berlin's 125 organ-grinders, who are welcome everywhere.

For young and old like to hear the melodies of their own and grandpa's youth.
