FANS MEET STARS AT FILM BALL

Four thousand filmgoers had a grand evening at the ball organized by the Daily Express on behalf of the Cinematograph Trade Benevolent Fund. It was a chance to see the stars in person, and if you were lucky, even dance with them. Among ~~the~~ ^{top persons} ~~seventy~~ present were Hugh Williams, and, with the well-known Producer Betty Box, Griffiths Jones and Greta Gynt. Many of the boxes fairly twinkled with stars.

~~Jean Simmons and Richard Dix~~

Among the Crazy Gang there was competition to kiss Margaret Lockwood, and if that's being crazy, why aren't we all?

~~You lucky people!~~
