

EDEN AT THE CON CON

It was holiday weather at Brighton when 3,000 delegates assembled at the Dome for the annual letting off of Conservative Party steam. ~~With Lord Woolton came Mrs. ^{John} Heryold-Strickland, president~~ on the first day; then came Sir Ian Fraser. Most notable arrival was Anthony Eden, down to make the day's big speech. ~~close by was~~ a representative of one of the other parties close by.

Mr. Eden said that what the nation urgently wanted was leadership
