Reel.2.

Pan shots of the crowd at the meeting which was held at Gandhi Ground to pay homage to Mr. Gandhi on his 78th birthday.

Further shots of the crowd.

A shot of Mr. Nehru addressing the meeting. Mr. Nehru in his speech said that although Mr. Gandhi was a skelton of bones but he was the man who gave luster, light and glamour to the life of India's. Pandit Nehru further said that Mr. Gandhi had prved sucessful his unique formula of non voilence in the political solution of the country and now he was trying the same to cure the disturbances in the country.

Mr. Gandhi, a difficult subject to photograph, was exclusively filmed when he arrived to acknowledge the greetings of a number of citizens of Delhi. Shots of Mr. Gandhi arriving and sitting on the platform. Mid. C.U. shots of Mr. Gandhi. Shots of Mr. Gandhi addressing the people through the aid of microphone. After Mr. Gandhi's arrival in Delhi after the recent disturbances, most of Mr. Gandhi's speeches are recorded and later broadcast by the All India Radio.

Shots of Mr. Gandhi leaving after acknowledging the greetings of the citizens of Delhi. Mr. Gandhi asked them to be peaceful and treat Muslims astheir brothers.

Shots of Mr. Gandhi helped by his grand daughter and grand daughter-in-law walking in the lawns of Birla House, where he is staying this time. Further shots of Mr. Ganhi walking.

END.

Except for a few shots of the proession, which I observed were being taken by a new Indian free lancer, the story is entirely exlusive. Shots of Gandhi are all exclusive.
