

GOLF BIG FOUR TOGETHER IN CHARITY GAMES

Sixty thousand spectators paid five shillings each, some of them more, at Merrtown, Leeds, to see a charity exhibition by the world's four greatest golfers. Back here from American triumphs which won him six thousand pounds, was Bobbie Locke. There too was Von Nida, winner of five major tournaments this summer; also the one and only Henry Cotton and Open champion Fred Daly, ~~conquerer of Von Nida on the previous day.~~ [Daly drove off, followed by his partner in the morning forenoon, Henry Cotton.

Then came Von Nida and his partner, Bobbie Locke.

Lealie Henson was on holiday watching points. In the morning the great players ended all square.

In the afternoon Daly and Von Nida beat their opponents two and one. Results in this charity exhibition were not important, but for Yorkshire enthusiasts of the game there was a rich feast of golf by the world's top players.
