PRINCESS, WITH PHILIP, NAMES NEW CUNARDER

The Heiress to thing the Throne was accompanied by Lieutenant Mountbatten when she arrived at Dalmuir station. Sea Rangers were all eyes for the future consort of the Princess. It was gratifying to Clydebank that with the near approach of the royal wedding the shipbuilders of Scotland should see the happy pair. To the yard that cradled the queen Elizabeth Her Royal Highness now came to launch the thirty-four-thousand tons liner Caronia, largest vessel now under construction in the world.
