

AND IT COMES OUT HERE

To the famous Horniman Museum, Forest Hill, a private collector has given 350 wind instruments, as a memorial to his son, killed in the war. Many of them date back to James the First and Louis the fourteenth. Others originated in Germany, Italy and Belgium. What they sound like we hear from the secretary of the Galpin Society, Eric Halfpenny.

The museum curator ~~is satisfied~~ ~~so far~~ locked ~~it~~ is ~~not~~ a real challenge. ~~2~~ Mr. Halfpenny

We found it in ~~the~~ ~~the~~ curiosity, such discovered in 16 hundred, appropriately for a ~~Scapet~~
— ~~to~~ sort, apparently. It remains in so much charming
as turning