

BOB HOPE

The famous Friars' Club in Los Angeles had for its guest of honour that prince of entertainers, Bob Hope, before his departure to London to be Master of Ceremonies at the Film Command Performance. Jack Benny was among fellow stars with another ace of comedy, George Jessell. With the guest of honour at the top table sat Al Jolson.

~~The room~~

The banquet room bristled with the famous. Walter Winchell, Eddie Cantor, Bob Burns, everyone there had a big name. As the President of Mirth rose to reply to the many speeches of praise the distinguished audience settled back for a feast of fun.

Klein
Abbott
Non
#23

November 11, 1947

- 1. TITLE: CELEBRITIES SALUTE BOB HOPE!
- 2. Show business honors a favorite son for entertainment overseas and endless benefits! Attending this Hollywood testimonial of the Friars Club are Paramount's Vice-President Henry Ginsberg; Radio's Henry Morgan; Jack Benny.... and George Jessel; the guest of honor Bob Hope; Al Jolson; Walter Winchell; Eddie Cantor,..... and George Burns.

This tribute comes to Bob Hope shortly before he leaves for London where he'll be master of ceremonies at the famous Command Performance.

Hope now responds to his well-wishers (TALK)

Laugh-makers laugh, as they honor one of their own!