*They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun, and in the morning,
We will remember them.—Laurence Binyon.*

SMUTS RE-DEDICATES WAR MEMORIAL: The Union's Prime Minister, in the uniform of a field-marshal (centre), unveils the new inscription on the National War Memorial on the terrace of Union Buildings, Pretoria, yesterday in the presence of Their Excellencies the Governor-General, the Rt.
