

JAMAICA: CHURCHILL GETS FREEDOM OF KINGSTON

30 Visited^{Eng} to Jamaica for a family occasion not connected with Queen Victoria was Mrs. Anthony Beauchamp, better known as Miss Sarah Churchill. Lady Foot, wife of the Governor, met her. The occasion, of course, was the conferring upon Mr. Churchill of the freedom of Kingston, the 150-yr-old capital of Jamaica. Along Queen Victoria's Parade ended the triumphal drive.

The Freedom ceremony came next, and the Prime Minister was, he said, proud and pleased to be so honoured. The Mayor, Mr. Edward Fagan, officiated with quiet dignity, presenting the visitor with the key of the city. After a memorable morning they all lunched at King's House.
