

173.

At Garmisch Partenkirchen in Germany ten nations competed in the two-man bobsleigh competition and Britain's number two team with Lord Kimberly and Mike Holliday set off with high hopes down the 1650 metre course.

196.

Our number one team with Edward Trees and George Hutchinson up follow them down the long curving course with its sixteen heavily banked bends, but it is the Swiss team who run out the winners and Britain finishes way down the list.