

WELCOME HOME, WINSTON

The Queen Mary was at the Ocean Terminal and number one passenger disembarking was the Prime Minister.

He had, as usual, ~~transacted important state business~~ ^{held important talks} on ^h holiday trip, saying farewell to Mr. Truman and having ^{discuss} ~~talks~~ of far-reaching importance with Mr. Eisenhower. No mention of either, now.

The whole country hopes the Jamaican holiday benefited Britain's hardest worker and wishes ~~him~~ more power to his elbow in Coronation year.
