At Ipoh, 12,000 Malaysians saw the Sultan of Perak celebrate his birthday in Public. Previously the ceremony was always held in the Palace of Kuala Lumpur. This year His Highness decided his people should see the show. Rajas came one after another to pledge their loyalty in the traditional manner. The Sultan is now 63. In the State of Perak he rules about a million people.

Each Raja was sprinkled with rice by His Highness. ~~Not~~ <sup>Not</sup> miles away planters carried on their work under the terrorist threat, in this land of astounding contrasts.
