COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF SCENES

At a smartly turned out parade in Delhi Cantonment on Saturday (24th Jan) Mr. Nehru received salute from nearly 250 members of the National Cadet Corps drawn from different parts of India. The cadets, among whom were many women, have assembled in Delhi to represent India's 70,000 NCC members at the Republic Day parade.

Led by two junior division cadets, Mr. Nehru inspected a guard of honour which the army, navy, Air and Girls wings of the corps presented jointly.

Mr. Nehru was introduced to 14 man contingent of cadets from the United Kingdom and Australia commanded by a R.A.F. officer, who ~~is~~ are in this country on the invitation of the Government of India to be present on the Republic Day celebrations.

Later with the cadets sitting round him, the Prime Minister talked to them informally on Military training and its importance in national life.
