

KEENAN WINS LONSDALE BELT OUTRIGHT

S
British bantam-weight champion Peter Keenan met challenger Frank Williams of Birkenhead at Paisley Ice Rink - Alex Lucas promotion. Victory tonight would give young Peter - the pride of Glasgow - the Lonsdale Belt foe keeps; but at the start Williams made the champ miss by a mile or two - maybe a consequence of ^{Peter} being too long without a fight. Round two saw a dramatic change. Five times Keenan put the challenger ~~down~~ on the canvas.

115

[The end came in round seven.... [137] Though the bell would have saved Williams technically/the referee wisely stopped the fight. So Keenan won the Lonsdale Belt outright. Next target, the Championship of Europe.