

BRITISH YOUTH & AGE ARE TOPS ON ICE

It's been honours for Britain all the week at Davos, in Switzerland. The Pairs Figure Skating Championship was won by the remarkable brother and sister from Brighton, John and Jennifer Nicks. With a brilliant exhibition they made sure of the World ~~Championship~~ ^{title}. And ⁸ their triumph ~~came~~ ^{came} Lawrence Demmy and Jean Westwood, of Manchester, who ~~had~~ won the World Dancing Title. ~~on the same rink.~~

66
~~(Ground)~~

Congratulations to John and Jennifer, ~~who~~. But the amazing triumph of the week was ~~was~~ by Lord Brabazon, winning the Cresta Cup. ~~He's~~ ⁷⁰ He's 69 and beat an American half his age in the final. Good old Brab.