

Britain and Denmark competed in a dancing contest at Copenhagen. Eric Lashbrooke and Sheila Wilkinson set a standard in the waltz which won high praise.

The Danish waltzers were very good but not quite in the same class. ~~Paul Doorme, of Belgium~~

Paul Doorme, of Belgium, was the judge. He made the British dancers comfortable winners by a ~~big~~ margin. Team Captain Alex Moore received the Challenge Cup.