	King Heinz Neuhaus, German and European heavyweight boxing champion, retained his title by knocking out Johnny Williams, British x British Empire Champion in the second minute of the ninth round in Dortmund, Germany on 15 February 1953. Although the fight was not a championship bout Neuhaus could have lost his European title without Williams losing gaining it. The fight was fairly even until the ninth. Neuhaus had had his nose bloodied twice by his opponent while the latter had sustained a cut over the right eye. The end came suddenly in Neuhaus' corner when he right handed Williams to the floor. The latter struggled slowly to his feet but was unable to let go the ropes and come out of the corner before the count of ten.
