INVITATION TO ATTEND PHOTO SESSION.

SCULPTOR VASCO LAZZOLO USES LONDON BOY AS MODEL FOR "THE EDINBURGH TROPHY-INTERNATIONAL BOYS' CLUBS BOXING".

British Sculptor Vasco Lazzolo who recently completed a bust in bronze of The Duke of Edinburgh (it was Lazzolo's first Royal Commission) will execute in bronze "The Edinburgh Trophy-International Boys' Clubs Boxing" which will be awarded to the winning team of the Trans-Atlantic Boys' Amateur Boxing Match between New York and London. Sponsored by the Variety Club the Match will take place at London's Empress Hall on 8th April (7.45 p.m) in the presence of The Duke of Edinburgh.

The presentation of the "Edinburgh Trophy" to the winning team will be made by The Duke in the ring at the conclusion of the Match.

Named after the Duke of Edinburgh the Trophy was donated by His Royal Highness as his contribution to the event. The Duke is patron of the London Federation of Boys' Clubs and a life-long member of Variety Club. As it is hoped that the Trans-Atlantic Match will alternate annually between New York and London, "The Edinburgh Trophy" will be used each year.

The Model, Leslie Steers from Camberwell, age 17, a sheet metal worker chosen from among fifty club boys, was National Junior ABA Winner last year.

Commenting on the design of "The Edinburgh Trophy", Lazzolo stated: "I shall give it individuality and that is why I selected a typical Boys' Club boxer as model. The trophy will personify a boxing boy -- that is, head, shoulders and chest, arms crossed with boxing gloves on each hand -- all in bronze."

Lazzolo will be putting the finishing touches on the clay model while Leslie Steers poses on
