

BOMBER OUTRAGE: 6 KILLED

Two Lincoln bombers, like these, set out ^{f Yorkshere} on a training flight over the Berlin corridor. But for such ^{training} flights ^{tr cd v} there had v been no Berlin airlift. But ^{f city} Berlin wasn't/ ^{sighted} ~~wasn't~~ this time

5 One

^{3 still} The Lincolns were 100 miles from the German capital, over the international Hamburg-Berlin air corridor ~~when~~ ~~the aircraft was shot down~~ the crew ^{saw} ~~was~~ Russian MIG fighters.

30

The Reds opened fire. ^{of the} [Near Boizenburg, on the border/~~between~~ British and Soviet zones, the bomber was hit. Parts fell in Russian territory, parts in British. Of this outrageous act

Lord Vansittart, former Permanent Under Secretary at the Foreign Office, has this to say: ^{of the outrageous act}

75

Six ~~of these~~ ^{men were} killed, one wounded.