

FLASHES

Mr. Eden greeted Mr. Gromyko at the General Assembly of UNO, then turned to Senator Lodge, the new U.S. chief delegate. All three no doubt wondered what course ~~events will take~~ <sup>now</sup> that Stalin is dead. But the day's big surprise was the denunciation of Russia by the retiring Secy. Genl.

Two new armoured divisions were reviewed at Verona by Italian Defence Minister Pacciardi and General Marras, in the presence of Military Attaches of 14 countries. The divisions have been armed with the famous Patton tanks - M-14.s officially. Running musical commentary by the popular Bersaglieri.

(109)

This American gift enables Italy to make a much needed contribution to NATO forces in Western Europe; plus the full treatment if the enemy doesn't like music!

At St. Mary's Tottenham, a ducal wedding. The Duke, none other than the Spurs' famous centre-forward Len Duquemin, getting married to Miss June Wakeling just about 4-hours before the kick off against Chelsea. That important engagement ruled out an immediate honeymoon, but at White Heart Lane Len got an even bigger hand than usual. For the London Derby the bridegroom had to put romance out of his mind ~~and~~ for 90-minutes and don <sup>his</sup> the white jersey, as spearhead of the Tottenham attack. ~~But with the wedding still in their minds,~~ <sup>But</sup> well-placed fans let fly with confetti as Len came out. Spurs made him captain for the day. So/<sup>first</sup>to convey Chelsea's congratulations was Roy Bentley.

The crowd might have expected a goal or two from the popular Duke, ~~to make his day perfect,~~ but fate and the unpredictable Pensioners said no. In fact Chelsea actually won. A nice thing for Len to have to explain to the wife on his very first day.