

COPY.

19.3.53.

Cameraman: J. Turner.

Footage: 700 ft.

Subject: Duke of Edinburgh with the 2nd Allied Tactical Air Force in Germany.

Location: Wunstorf and Celle Airfield.

Order and Description of Shots:

The arrival at Wunstorf by helicopter.

Duke in Air Marshal's uniform inspects R.A.F. Guard of Honour.

Shot of Duke and RAF Officers.

Duke talks to air crew beside plane.

Duke walks down line of Vampires, speaks to crews.

Long shots, semi-close and close-ups.

Duke looks inside cockpit of Vampires in hanger.

Duke and party walk past airmen and wives, and talks to some of them.

Shots of Duke looking at flying display from Control Tower.

Shots of Vampires going out on to runway.

Flying past, various shots.

General view of control tower.

(Note: All above at Wunstorf).

Duke walks past night fighter Meteors, and then past Belgian planes. General shots.

Shot looking at Befors gun.

Shot of Vampires doing air aerobatics.

Duke looks at strip of film from an anti-aircraft gun.

DUKE OF EDINBURGH WITH ROYAL NAVAL RHINE SQUADRON
AND DEPARTURE.

Location: Krafeld and Wildenrath

Length: 370 feet

Duke looks into cockpit of Sabre Jet at Wildenrath

Shots of Duke talking to sailors of Royal Naval Rhine Squadron at Krafeld

Duke goes aboard and looks at Head Quarters craft of Squadron HMML 6021 or Prince Charles

After inspection of aircraft and Guard of Honour Duke says Goodbye to Service Chiefs and takes off in Viking

Shot of 3 service chiefs

Duke walking with Army and R.A.F. Chiefs

Chiefs saluting from Wildenrath

Names of Chiefs

Rear Admiral R. St. V. Sherbrooke, V.C., D.S.O., Flag Officer Germany

General Sir Richard N. Gale C.in C. Northern Army

Air Chief Marshal Sir Robert M. Foster, C.in C. 2nd Allied Tactical Air Force

The Prince Charles was formerly Karin II and was presented to Herman Goering by the people of Hamburg.

The Royal Naval Rhine Squadron was formed in 1949 for co-ordination with the Army on the Rhine in the British Zone. The Squadron carries out cross river exercised with the Army using various types of landing craft and motor launches. The latter mostly ex German.

The Duke of Edinburgh with R.A.F.

Location: Gutersloh and Bad Oeynhausen

Length: 160 feet

Duke drives in open car into Bad Oeynhausen, Head Quarters centre of Northern Army

Another shot of Duke driving

Army wives watch

At R.A.F. station Gutersloh Duke speaks to W.R.A.F. clerk and Sgt. ~~XXXXXX~~ Leopold.

Black boy from Sierra Leone, West Africa among many others.

Duke sees R.A.F. equipment including R.A.F. camera equipment

Duke watches training exercises of Commodo type by R.A.F. Personnel.