

Saw my Hotel
her Hutton "SPORTSMAN OF THE YEAR"

The Cup annually awarded to the man voted by Sporting Record readers, Sportsman of the Year, goes to Len Hutton.

The incomparable Jack Hobbs was among the big gathering at the Savoy in Len's honour. So were the inseparable Bedser twins - don't ask which is which. Those two marvels of the ice John and Jennifer Nicks showed, like Freddie Mills, that it wasn't a cricket only affair. Denis Compton, ^{twice} an award winner in the past, was ~~there~~ ^{present}; Roger Bannister represented stars of the running track, and that great little Welshman/Dai Rees brought the flavour of golf. Runner Sylvia Cheesman was in the feminine contingent. Lord

Burghley made the presentation, ^{All we want now is for Len}
Hutton to win ~~back the Ashes.~~

~~He had the Cup and the Ashes.~~

fill of Cup & those Ashes