

A-128440

Subject: ROK Army soldiers enlisted into British troops.
Place: Seoul
Date: 17th March, 1953.
Cameraman: Kim Wee.

About 200 soldiers selected from among ROK Army today enlisted to British troops, received uniforms of British made at British Base Ordnance Unit, sent to the front to join with British troops.

ROLL 1

1. L.S. ROK Army man listening to advice given by British officers.
2. C.U. British soldiers giving orders.
3. C.U. ROK Army men listening to orders.
4. M.S. Lined up ROK men entering Ordnance building to receive uniforms and daily necessities.
5. M.S. ROK men leaving building after they receive things.
6. L.S. Same.
7. C.U. Same.
8. M.S. ROK men changing uniforms from old to new received British ones.

ROLL 2

1. M.S. ROK men taking clothes out of box now received.
2. M.S. same.
3. C.U. Men trying to wear British uniforms.
4. C.U. Same.
5. M.S. A number of ROK men adjusting gaiters.
6. M.S. British officer helping ROK men to use gaiters.
7. C.U. Same.
8. M.S. British officer checking ROK men to wear caps.
9. L.S. British officer checking and helping ROK men as they wear British uniform.

ROLL 3

1. M.S. Well dressed up ROK men chatting together. They look fresh and eager for their new experience.
2. L.S. Same.
3. M.S. Same.
4. C.U. Same.
5. M.S. ROK men watching themselves in the mirror after they are dressed up.
6. L.S. Now they are ready to leave for the front.
7. M.S. Same.
8. M.S. ROK men line up to wait their turn to be carried away by truck to the front.
9. M.S. Mixed together with British soldier they talk on the truck.