

b-228440
b-488440

SUBJECT: Princess Margaret visits Rotherham on the occasion of its 50th anniversary as county borough and opens ROWLINSON TECHNICAL SCHOOL.

PLACE: ROTHERHAM AND SHEFFIELD

DATE: 18.4.53.

CAMERAMAN: J. Turner.

FOOTAGE SHOT: 500 ft.

LIST OF SHOTS

Several Crowd shots.

Princess arrives at Rotherham Town Hall - inspects a Guard of Honour with the Mayor (Councillor YOUNG)

Crowd shots.

Princess arrives at 15th Century Rotherham Parish church, is conducted into church through line of St. John's Ambulance Nursing Cadets, by Bishop Hunter of Sheffield and Bishop Gerard, Vicar of Rotherham.

General view of church.

Princess leaves church with the Mayor of Rotherham, receives bouquet from JUDITH HOWARD - 9 year old nursing cadet.

Princess waves to the crowd walks along North Wall path to car.

Princess drives away through cheering crowds.

Princess arrives at ROWLINSON TECHNICAL COLLEGE is conducted in by Mayor of Sheffield.

Princess inspects the College looking at various classrooms and the College kitchens

Shot of future Students.

General View of Princess opening the College.

General view of college.

NOTE: All the College classrooms were empty and the Sheffield part of story is fairly weak.