KENYA GOVERNOR SUPERVISES MAU MAU WAR

At the base of Mount Kenya the Governor, Sir Evelyn Baring, inspected the spearhead units of the Kenya regiment and ^{w/h} Samburu trackers, carrying the war into Mau Mau ^{Bambuu} forest territory. Recent arrests of Jomo Kenyatta and other leaders have spurred the rebels to fresh effort. The campaign still goes on. Armed with sten guns and other rapid-firers the troops and trackers surprised some bandits in the jungle.

One of the dead men was armed with a spear, rifle and some rounds of .22 ammunition. As this typical operation proceeded came news that the Mau Mau had murdered 12 people in a shanty village near Nairobi.
