

SUDBURY GIVES BOROUGH FREEDOM TO COUNTY REGIMENT

20 The Earl of Stradbroke, Lord Lt. of the County, inspected the First Battalion, Suffolk Regiment, old comrades included, and then presented two silver bugles.
It was part of the ceremony in which the town of Sudbury conferred its freedom on the Regiment. The Mayor also gave ~~presented~~ two silver bugles, <sup>then</sup> ~~whereupon~~ Brigadier Backhouse, Colonel of the Suffolks, presented the Borough with a 40 piece of Officers' Mess Plate.

(crowd) The first Battalion, home after 3-and-a-half years fighting terrorists in Malaya, will soon leave to garrison Trieste.

though, if he thinks reveille sounds any more welcome
when blown through silver he's mistaken. ~~Then~~
