

MOUNTBATTEN REVIEWS ANZACS ON WAY HERE

Mediterranean C.-in-C. Earl Mountbatten met the crew of the Australian cruiser Sydney when the ^{man-o'-war} ~~ship~~ reached Malta on its way to Britain. Four G.C.s were included among the navy men. Sydney will take part in the fleet review after the coronation. She also brings to England the 250 of all the Australian services who will be in the coronation procession, and they include four V.C.s. On ³⁵ parade too were the 175 men of the New Zealand Coronation contingent. Amongst them was Sgt. Hinton who won his V.C. at Crete. The gallant men of Anzac were assured by the C-in-C that a warm, family welcome awaited them in the Mother Country.
