

QUEEN AND DUKE VISIT B.I.F.

The British Industries Fair, with 2,000 exhibitors attracting buyers from all over the world, had been open for some days when it received the boost of a Royal visit. Answer to the housewife's dream is the combined floor polisher and carpet sweeper; a bull point in the export drive. If there are some left over for the home market thousands of women will bless the designer. All the Commonwealth exhibits at Earl's Court were seen by Her Majesty. A model of Coco Poca Route is in pop shells Furniture is high up among manufactures we are selling abroad.

So are prefabricated houses. One firm, using windows of the type easily cleaned in doors, has designed prefabs to meet the special requirements of several countries. ~~Now, at Olympia and at Castle Bromwich~~ <sup>at Earl's Court,</sup> Britain's shop window is attracting big business.
