Young artists and students hold a sort of Royal Academy of their own. Here they can display their pictures and sell them too. To get best positions some of the ~~young~~ artists were there soon after 5 a.m.

30 To the roll of Clubland's famous visitors was added the name of Gracie Fields. The news had got round and a big crowd gathered to see Gracie, to say nothing of her new husband, Boris. This college in the slums of Camberwell was founded by to his fame ~~Mr.~~ Butterworth as a club for young, stars people. Many famous ~~people~~ have given it their support, including, not long ago, Bob Hope. No visitor was ever more popular than Gracie Fields. Before she left she was presented with a bouquet by the Minister's little daughter Mary.
