

BRAVO MIKE HAWTHORN

130,000 came from all points of the English
compass for the race of the year. Prince Biera (Maserati), American Harry Shell (Gordini), and two days after his 100 m.p.h. crash, Stirling Moss in a Cooper-Alta.

Veteran Baron de Graffenried won heat-one in a Maserati.

Mike Hawthorn drove a Ferrari. Another veteran was Louis Chiron, now nearing 60. In the final of the Daily Express International Trophy were the world's best drivers. Ahead of them 35 laps ^{the} of Silverstone circuit, which is nearly 3-miles round. Only 24-years-old // Mike Hawthorn ~~beat~~ drove his Ferrari in a way the Italian aces themselves could not have bettered.

(5 out) De Graffenried retired when he heard he was penalised for jumping the start.

A.M. Bryde's Cooper-Bristol had an engine fire. Fortunately no injury.

(2 out) Mike Hawthorn, here passing Louis Rossier's Ferrari, averaged 92.26 miles-an-hour to win the race.

Lord Beverbrook's son Max Aitken, presented Mike with the Trophy. If it goes on like this he'll ^{soon} have a million of 'em.
