

WIMBLEDON OPENS

Even the sun turned up for the Wimbledon opening. The 15 courts of the All-England Club looked their best for the Coronation meeting. Close on 300 of the world's best players have come for the most coveted prizes in the game, Wimbledon Titles. [Australians are nowadays on top on the masculine side, Ken Rosewall is strongly fancied to 20

~~win the singles. Vic Seixas (America) thinks otherwise. Budge Patty, also America. Fred Perry is here reporting . Susa Partridge.... Tempermental Gardner Mulloy. Pretty Mrs. Weiss from Argentina. <sup>Vetosa</sup> Jean Borotra. Sylvia Cheeseman was with her friend Gem Hoahing,~~

40

Gloria Butler (U.S.A) The sunshine and warmth put the thousands of spectators in a festival mood. Not for years has Wimbledon looked so green and lovely. ~~It is rare for the~~ 20

~~Centre Court to provide excitement on the first day. As was expected last year's runner up Drobny won as he liked in straight sets against his French opponent Destremau. Drobny is a self-exiled Czech, who is now a national of Egypt.~~

40

He is making perhaps his last attempt to win the Wimbledon Title.

139

Match point, Destremau at the far end.... Game, set and match for Drobny.

Bedgman my turned Pro, last yr's runner-up Drobny opened to Centre Ct program and