

DROBNY BEATS PATTY

being hot in

When old rivals, Drobny and <sup>Set</sup> Patty, went on to the Centre <sup>crowded</sup> ~~Court~~ ct on a they didn't know they would make Wimbledon history by providing the longest singles match ever <sup>played & tr.</sup> ~~on that court.~~
----- <sup>the marathon</sup>
Yes, ~~the~~ second-set went to 16-18 against Drobny, making it one-all.

Taking a breather Drobny didn't know he had another 45 games to play. He lost the third set, won the fourth and the fifth went to 22 games before Drobny won.

Towards the end Budge Patty, who's beaten Drobny in past years had cramp but went on.

(116)

At last it was match point, Drobny leading 11-10. H own service. H won. 8/5/M.

It was nine O'clock after four-hours-and-a-quarter and 93 games before the great match was over.
