

QUEEN MOTHER AND PRINCESS MARGARET FLY TO RHODESIA.

The Queen Mother and Princess Margaret took leave of ~~Colonial Office~~ <sup>HEADED BY</sup> officials and Sir Oliver Lyttelton the Colonial Secretary when they left London airport on the first stage of their journey to Rhodesia by a Comet aircraft of British Overseas Airways, on a flight to Central Africa for the Cecil Rhodes Centenary Celebrations. <sup>GOVERNMENT</sup>

57. The Queen saw ~~them~~ <sup>AND THE</sup> take off from the Royal enclosure on the roof of the airport buildings as the aircraft set course for the coast, ~~en route for its flight over the Alps to Central Africa and the hotel in Bulawayo where the Royal~~ <sup>ADW TO</sup> ~~visitors~~ <sup>VISITORS</sup> will live.

87

On its journey the sleek aircraft with its specially fitted sleeping accommodation will fly high over the Alps and on to Africa and the spacious airy hotel in Bulawayo where the Royal visitors will live.