TENNIS AT WIMBLEDON.

Finals of Men's Singles, Friday, 3rd July.

Please note that, in addition to our own sound coverage by Mr. Read, due here approximately 5 p.m. to-day, we are to receive silent material from Gaumont. Our copy of their coverage will be available for collection from Denham first thing Saturday morning, 4th July. This story is for release on Monday, 6th July.

Final of Women's Singles,

Final of Men's Doubles, Saturday, 4th July.

Again, we shall have our own sound coverage by Mr. Read and silent rota material from Gaumont on the women's singles only. Our own negative will be brought back in two parts, the first match being brought back by a motorcyclist at approximately 4 p.m. and the second part by Mr. Fulmer, due in here at approximately 5.30 p.m.

Our print of Gaumont's material is expected to be available for collection from Denham at 7 p.m. on Saturday, 4th July. As in the case of the men's singles, these two items, too, are for release on Monday, 6th July.

F. J. PARTINGTON.

FJP/GEM/PEW.

P.S. I am putting Dudley on Saturday's Tennis, with a view to filming the Presentations. If he obtains satisfactory pictures, we will then not need to worry about Gaumont's hand camera rota - thus saving time.
